SWIM LESSONS

Swim Stages:

Stage 1: Water Acclimation (Ages 3+)

This program increases comfort with underwater exploration and introduces basic self-rescue performed with assistance.

Students develop comfort with underwater exploration and learn to safely exit in the event of falling into a body of water. This stage lays the foundation that allows for a student's future progress in swimming.

Blow Bubbles: mouth & nose submerged (assisted)

Front Tow: blow bubbles (assisted)

Water Exit: getting out of water (assisted)

Back Float: (assisted) head on chest

Roll: (assisted)

Front Float: blow bubbles (assisted)

Back Tow: (assisted) head on chest

Monkey Crawl: 10 ft. (assisted)

Stage 2: Water Movement

This swim program encourages forward movement in water and basic self-rescue skills performed independently. Students have already mastered being able to blow bubbles and hold their breath.

In stage 2, students focus on body position and control, directional change, and forward movement in the water while also continuing to practice how to safely exit in the event of falling into a body of water.

Teen Adult Swim Lessons

Beginner: Ages 13+

Designed to help on-swimmers to feel comfortable in the water activities. Each session meets once per week for 6 weeks.

Intermediate: Ages 13+

Designed for swimmers who feel comfortable in the shallow and deep ends of the pool, but now need to develop their swimming stroke. This class is not intended for those needing technical refinement. Each session meets once per week for 6 weeks.

Private Swim Lessons

Private swim lessons allow for accelerated learning

Swim lessons offer individualized attention for each student. It is recommended that students take at least six thirty-minute lessons customized by skill level and goals.

Semi-Private Swim Lessons

Semi-Private swim lessons are great for siblings, family members, and friends!

These lessons allow two or more participants of similar skill, level, and age to learn together.

Participants will receive 6 thirty-minute lessons with flexible scheduling that can be customized to your goals and needs.
